Dealer notes

If you're looking for an affordable and dependable all-wheel-drive sedan, check out this 2008 Subaru Legacy 2.5i. It comes equipped with Subaru's 2.5L 4-cylinder engine and full-time AWD, making it a solid year-round car for Pacific Northwest weather. This Legacy has 215,239 miles and has recently been serviced with a new power steering pump, valve cover gasket, and fresh oil & filter change. Having this maintenance already taken care of is a big plus on a higher-mileage Subaru. The Legacy offers a comfortable ride, good interior space, and Subaru's proven AWD system while staying affordable to own. Come see it at TNT AUTO & RV SALES, a family-owned Tacoma dealership serving the area for almost a decade. We're proud to be one of Tacoma's highest-rated independent dealerships with a 4.6/5 Google rating. Financing options are available through banks and credit unions, and cash deals can usually be completed in 30 minutes or less.
