Dealer notes

If you are searching for a versatile, stylish, and highly capable family SUV, this 2018 Ford Explorer Base 4WD is the perfect match. Finished in a commanding Shadow Black exterior, this vehicle delivers a bold road presence that effortlessly blends modern sophistication with rugged utility. Whether you are navigating daily city commutes or preparing for a weekend family getaway, this iconic SUV offers the ideal combination of passenger space, reliability, and timeless design to elevate your driving experience. Under the hood, this 2018 Ford Explorer is powered by a dependable 3.5L Ti-VCT V6 engine, delivering robust performance and the versatile convenience of Flex-Fuel capability. Paired with an advanced Four Wheel Drive (4WD) drivetrain, this SUV is engineered to provide exceptional traction and stability, allowing you to confidently tackle slippery roads, adverse weather, and uneven terrains. It offers a balanced, smooth ride that makes it as practical for daily errands as it is capable for longer road trips. Inside the spacious cabin, you will find a comfortable Medium Stone interior designed for everyday durability. This model comes equipped with Equipment Group 100a, which includes practical front and second-row floor liners to keep your footwells protected from dirt and debris, as well as non-configurable daytime running lamps (DRL) for added safety on the road. Complete with a California emissions system, this environmentally conscious 2018 Ford Explorer Base 4WD represents an outstanding value for buyers seeking a spacious, capable, and dependable utility vehicle.
