Under the hood is a 4.3L V6 paired with an automatic transmission, delivering the kind of smooth, dependable power that makes errands, commutes, and hauling supplies feel easy. With rear-wheel drive and a trailering/handling-minded suspension, its built to stay composed when the road gets choppy or the load gets serious. This Sierras fully boxed frame gives it that solid, built like a truck feel, while confident 4-wheel disc brakes and stability/traction systems help keep things calm and controlled. Little practical touches make a big difference toolike bumper corner steps for quick bed access and movable upper tie-downs to keep cargo from wandering. Inside, youll find a durable, work-ready cabin with gray cloth seating and rubberized-vinyl flooring that wont panic when muddy boots show up. The dash keeps it classic and readable with a straightforward gauge cluster and driver info display, plus power windows, cruise control, and single-zone air conditioning for everyday comfort. And when youre ready to dig into the details, a CARFAX report is available for this Sierraso you can shop with extra confidence.
