Dealer notes

2015 Mercedes-Benz Sprinter 2500 High Roof Executive Diesel. This unit features a rear executive limo-style configuration with seating for seven passengers in the rear and an incredible amount of upgraded amenities, including a premium stereo system, television, refrigerator, bar, overhead air conditioning, iPad functional controls, privacy partition, and Mercedes-Benz BlueTEC diesel engine. It has more features than you can shake a stick at. We have just serviced and inspected this vehicle. It was previously used for long-distance travel up and down the East Coast, proving to be both dependable and comfortable. It is ready to go to work as an executive limousine, mobile office, or private family vehicle. These are also ideal for YouTubers and influencers who need a mobile filming studio, crew transportation, and a workspace on the road. This Sprinter is priced at a fraction of what comparable units typically sell for, but it is not perfect. As the photos show, the soft leather upholstery has started to peel in some areas. The seats themselves are fully intact, but the leather covering is showing wear. With the extensive electronics and accessories installed, we cannot guarantee that every feature functions perfectly; however, we have personally operated the premium stereo system with Rockford speakers and the television, and those items work properly as they should. Mechanically, the van checks out well, has a fresh Virginia safety inspection, and is priced accordingly for its condition. Comparable executive Sprinters equipped like this can easily range from $200,000 to $300,000. We do have a good local upholstery shop that could tackle the project but not knowing what the next usage was going to be. We wanted to price the unit affordably did not have the extra expense, especially if somebody is going to remove seats or change the configuration, etc.. Price does not include $0 processing fee
