Dealer notes

This 2008 Subaru Tribeca Limited 7-Passenger is a spacious and comfortable AWD SUV with 155,000 miles, making it a solid option for anyone looking for a used Subaru SUV, 7-passenger SUV, or all-wheel-drive family vehicle. The Subaru Tribeca gives you the room and versatility of a midsize SUV while still offering the confidence of Subaru's well-known symmetrical all-wheel drive system. This Subaru Tribeca Limited is a great choice for families, commuters, road trips, outdoor use, and everyday driving in Washington weather. If you are shopping for a used AWD SUV in Tacoma, a 3-row SUV near Seattle, a family SUV in Lakewood, or a budget-friendly 7-passenger SUV near Puyallup, Federal Way, Olympia, Spanaway, or University Place, this Tribeca is worth taking a look at. It gives you seating for up to seven passengers, a comfortable cabin, and the practicality people want in a used SUV. The Limited trim adds a nicer feel compared to a base model, with extra comfort and convenience features that make daily driving more enjoyable. Subaru SUVs are popular in the Pacific Northwest because they handle rain, hills, and changing road conditions well. With its AWD capability, 7-passenger seating, and practical SUV layout, this Tribeca is a good fit for someone who needs space without jumping into a full-size SUV.
