Dealer notes

If you are searching for the ultimate blank canvas to build or expand your business fleet, this 2015 Ford Econoline Commercial Cutaway E-350 Super Duty 138" DRW is the ideal candidate. Finished in a professional Oxford White, this commercial cutaway offers the legendary durability and versatility that fleet managers and independent contractors trust. With its robust Dual Rear Wheel (DRW) configuration and a highly functional 138-inch wheelbase, this platform is engineered to support a wide variety of custom upfits, from utility bodies to delivery box applications, making it a highly profitable and customizable addition to your commercial operations. Under the hood, this heavy-duty workhorse is powered by a reliable 5.4L 8-cylinder engine, delivering the dependable horsepower and torque required to haul heavy loads day in and day out. The E-350 Super Duty chassis is built for maximum utility, utilizing its dual rear wheels for enhanced stability and payload capacity under demanding work conditions. To make your commercial body installation seamless and secure, this cutaway is equipped with frame pucks (isolators) that minimize vibration and protect your custom upfit structure, while the integrated license plate bracket keeps the vehicle road-ready from day one. Inside the cab, functionality meets driver utility to ensure productive days on the road. This 2015 Ford Econoline Commercial Cutaway E-350 Super Duty comes equipped with cruise control to reduce driver fatigue during long highway transits, along with convenient user-defined switches that allow for seamless integration of aftermarket auxiliary equipment. Additionally, the included Class I trailer towing package expands your utility, allowing you to pull extra equipment with confidence. Do not miss the opportunity to customize this reliable, powerful, and versatile commercial chassis to fit the exact needs of your business.
