Dealer notes

5.7L V8 / 6PSD / 405HP / NO MODS / ONE OWNER For sports car enthusiasts seeking an iconic piece of American performance, this pristine 2004 Chevrolet Corvette Z06 Hardtop is a rare find. Draped in head-turning Torch Red over a sleek Black interior, this legendary sports car boasts a coveted Carfax 1-Owner history that showcases its exceptional pedigree and care. The aggressive styling of the classic Z06 fixed-roof coupe body makes a powerful visual statement, offering an unmistakable presence that commands attention whether parked at a local show or cruising down the open highway. At the heart of this high-performance machine lies the legendary 5.7L LS6 V8 SFI engine, paired with a rewarding manual transmission that puts total control right in your hands. This potent powertrain is engineered for pure driving enthusiasts, delivering the raw acceleration and precision handling that solidified the Z06's track-oriented reputation. Whether you are carving through winding canyon roads or accelerating down a straightaway, the mechanical harmony of the high-revving LS6 V8 and manual gearbox ensures a visceral driving experience every time you turn the key. Inside the driver-focused cabin, performance meets everyday convenience with the premium memory package, which easily recalls your preferred driving positions. Night drives are made safer and more comfortable thanks to the electrochromic (light-sensitive auto-dimming) inside rearview and driver-side outside rearview mirrors, which automatically reduce glare from trailing headlights. Complete with a front license plate bracket and meeting federal emissions requirements, this stunning 2004 Chevrolet Corvette Z06 Hardtop represents a perfect blend of modern collectible status and raw mechanical thrills.
