Dealer notes

The 2024 Nissan Altima 2.5 SR AWD Sedan presents a compelling blend of style and performance in a sleek Super Black exterior. Its bold stance is accentuated by body-colored splash guards, which add a touch of sophistication and functionality to the sedan's aerodynamic design. This model comes equipped with a 2.5L 4-cylinder engine, promising a balance of power and efficiency that suits both city driving and long highway journeys. Step inside, and you're greeted by a sophisticated interior featuring Sport seat trim that complements the vehicle's dynamic character. The cabin is thoughtfully designed with details like the SR floor mats and trunk mat, ensuring that your driving experience is as comfortable as it is exhilarating. The inclusion of a hideaway net enhances storage solutions, offering practicality without compromising on style, while the trunk organizer tray keeps your cargo well-managed and secure. Underpinning the Altima's impressive capabilities is its All-Wheel Drive drivetrain, providing enhanced traction and stability across varying road conditions. This makes the Altima 2.5 SR AWD a fantastic choice for those who need dependable performance year-round. The vehicle also proudly complies with [c03] 50 state emissions standards, reflecting Nissan's commitment to environmentally responsible engineering. In summary, this sedan harmonizes a sporty appearance with advanced features, offering an engaging and reliable ride for discerning drivers.
