Dealer notes

The 1992 Mazda MX-5 Miata captures everything enthusiasts love about the original “NA” generation: timeless styling, pop-up headlights, lightweight construction, rear-wheel drive, and an engaging five-speed manual transmission. With only 33,400 miles, this exceptionally preserved example offers the pure, analog driving experience that made the Miata an instant modern classic. Carfax certified as a three-owner vehicle with no accidents or damage reported or detectable, this Miata has clearly been loved throughout its life. Its remarkable originality is further demonstrated by the presence of its factory accessories, including the convertible-top boot, spare tire, and original tools—items frequently missing from vehicles of this age. Clean, largely original, low-mileage NA Miatas are becoming increasingly difficult to find, particularly with a manual transmission and such a well-documented history. Whether enjoyed on a winding coastal road, displayed at a local cars-and-coffee gathering, or preserved as part of a collection, this charming roadster represents an increasingly rare opportunity to experience Mazda’s iconic sports car as it was originally intended. PLEASE NOTE: this car will deliver with brand-new tires, we’ll work out the brand and style with the new owner and they’ll be mounted prior to delivery.
