Dealer notes

1971 PORSCHE 911 T TARGA Burgundy Red Over Black Vinyl 1971 Porsche 911 T Targa finished in Burgundy Red over a Black Vinyl interior. Representing the final years of the long-hood 911, the 911 T combines the iconic early 911 styling with the open-air character of Porsche's distinctive Targa body style. The exterior has been repainted in Burgundy Red, giving this Targa a rich, period-appropriate appearance. The Black Vinyl interior provides a classic contrast to the exterior and retains the unmistakable character of an early 911. Additional interior improvements include new driver and passenger door cards and a complete set of Sierra Madre Collection carpeting, giving the cabin a fresh and cohesive appearance. In preparation for the sale, the car has received an extensive list of service and replacement items, including: New valve covers and gaskets, oil level sender and gasket, Fresh Brad Penn 40-weight engine oil service, fuel filter, fuel level sending unit, engine air filter, spark plugs, drive belt, hood support shocks, throttle lever, Brake fluid service, shift lever, shift rod coupling, shifter bushing, clutch cable boot, throttle pedal stop, all new Sierra Madre Collection carpeting, New driver and passenger door cards, 25-watt dash speaker, 2 new batteries and a new starter motor.
