Dealer notes

The 2024 Toyota bZ4X XLE AWD in striking Black with a modern Black interior is a testament to Toyota's innovative leap into the electric vehicle arena. Designed with an emphasis on style and practicality, this electric SUV boasts a 0-cylinder engine, underlining its commitment to environmentally friendly performance. The XLE AWD (Natl) styling is both sleek and functional, appealing to those who crave a blend of contemporary aesthetics and versatile functionality. This model stands out not only for its zero-emission performance but also for its exceptional handling, courtesy of the all-wheel-drive system. The addition of the weather package ensures that harsh conditions are met with ease, providing comfort and safety regardless of the climate. Inside, the all-weather floor liners and cargo solutions, crafted by Toyota Motor Sales (TMS), add an extra layer of durability and protection, making it ideal for adventures that go beyond the paved road. The car complies with 50 state emissions, ensuring it meets environmental standards across the U.S. Every journey in the bZ4X XLE AWD is complemented by a host of features designed for convenience and comfort. The spacious, high-tech interior with advanced infotainment and connectivity options makes each drive a pleasure. With the emphasis on sustainable driving, the Toyota bZ4X is both a progressive choice for the environmentally conscious and a luxurious ride. This innovative electric SUV invites drivers to experience the future of driving today, without compromising on style or substance.
