Dealer notes

2019 Lexus NX 300h AWD - 113,857 Miles Finished in Atomic Silver over Black NuLuxe upholstery with Dark Umber trim, this NX 300h combines hybrid power and all-wheel drive with a compact luxury-SUV layout. Factory navigation, the Premium Package and a heated wood-and-leather steering wheel add equipment that makes daily travel more comfortable. A 2.5-liter four-cylinder engine works with the gas-electric hybrid system, paired with a continuously variable transmission and all-wheel drive. Strut front suspension, double-wishbone rear suspension with coil springs and electric power-assisted steering support an easy-to-use everyday driving setup. Regenerative braking helps recover energy during deceleration. Originally priced at $46,050 including the original shipping charge, this NX includes the $3,270 Premium Package, $1,860 Navigation System, $550 power back door with kick sensor and $150 heated wood-and-leather steering wheel with paddles. The label also lists the $125 electronic inside rearview mirror and $535 Intuitive Parking Assist with auto braking. Inside, the cabin features power front seats, a 60/40 split-folding rear seat, Bluetooth connectivity, climate control and a leather-trimmed steering wheel. LED brake lights, front fog lamps, a rear-window wiper and defroster, and the power back door add everyday convenience. Safety equipment includes front collision mitigation, tire-pressure monitoring, driver and passenger knee airbags, and curtain airbags for both rows. For a buyer looking for a hybrid luxury SUV with all-wheel drive and useful factory upgrades, this NX 300h brings together practical cabin space, navigation and comfort-focused equipment.
