Dealer notes

The 2022 Tesla Model 3 Performance AWD is a high-performance all-electric sedan that combines rapid acceleration, modern technology, and everyday practicality. Powered by dual electric motors producing approximately 455 horsepower and 487 lb-ft of torque, this Model 3 delivers instant response and impressive performance the moment you press the accelerator. Its all-wheel drive system provides confident traction and balanced handling, while the single-speed automatic drivetrain delivers smooth, quiet power with no traditional gear changes. With 61,492 miles, this Model 3 Performance offers an appealing combination of relatively low mileage, strong performance, and modern electric-vehicle capability. The Performance trim gives the Model 3 a more aggressive and enthusiast-focused character while maintaining the clean, minimalist design Tesla is known for. Inside, the cabin features a modern layout centered around Tesla’s large touchscreen interface, while the four-door sedan design provides comfortable passenger space and useful everyday practicality. Combining impressive electric performance, all-wheel drive confidence, sleek styling, and advanced technology, the 2022 Tesla Model 3 Performance AWD is an exciting and versatile choice for drivers looking for serious performance without giving up efficiency or everyday usability.
