Dealer notes

The 2022 Hyundai Elantra SEL IVT is a distinctive sedan that combines modern aesthetics with innovative engineering, wrapped in a sleek Fluid Metal exterior that captures light with a captivating shimmer. Its stylish design is matched by the Medium Gray interior, which offers a sophisticated and serene environment balanced with practical features. The Medium Gray cloth seat trim not only provides comfort but also contributes to the cabin's overall upscale appeal, complementing the car's contemporary design ethos. Under the hood, the Elantra SEL IVT boasts a robust 2.0L 4-cylinder engine, offering a harmonious blend of performance and fuel efficiency, which is ideal for everyday commuting and long-distance driving alike. The Intelligent Variable Transmission (IVT) ensures smooth and responsive handling, enhancing the driving experience whether maneuvering through city streets or cruising on open highways. The inclusion of carpeted floor mats is a thoughtful touch that adds to the comfort and practicality of the vehicle's interior, making each journey pleasant for both driver and passengers. The Elantra SEL IVT comes equipped with Option Group 01, ensuring a seamless integration of advanced features and conveniences that enhance the driving experience. This carefully curated combination of technology and functionality makes the Elantra an appealing choice for those who value reliability and modernity in their vehicle. Coupled with Hyundai's reputation for safety and innovation, this model stands out as a testament to the forward-thinking design and engineering that defines the brand.
