Dealer notes

Our 2008 Ford F-150 SuperCab is a great truck for mixing work and play, plus it has the stellar good looks to pull up at Caesars Palace and valet park in front for all to see. The 5.4L Flex Fuel V8 engine kicking out 300hp will keep you humming along the road...smooth as silk. Paired with a 4-Speed automatic transmission, this 4X4 stands up to the "Built Ford Tough" slogan. And...it looks fabulous at the same time! This F-150 is equipped with a full complement of power accessories, a terrific audio system, loads of airbags, ABS, illuminated entry, and cruise on the wheel. Check Out Our Pictures! The extended cab design makes it easy to load up the family, all your necessary gear, and travel in true comfort. With ample and comfortable seating... load 'er up and get going! There's a reason the Ford F-150 is America's best selling truck truck, and our SuperCab is yet another fine example of Ford ingenuity. Save this Page and Call for Availability.
