Dealer notes

Experience the ultimate expression of open-air high-performance driving with this stunning 2009 BMW M3 convertible. Finished in the highly sought-after Alpine White exterior paint, this iconic drop-top offers an exquisite aesthetic contrast with its rich, luxurious Bamboo Beige interior. Perfect for passionate drivers who demand both head-turning style and track-inspired engineering, this premium convertible captures the pure joy of the open road while delivering the prestigious pedigree and daily usability inherent to the legendary M division. At the heart of this 2009 BMW M3 is a high-revving, naturally aspirated 4.0L 8-cylinder engine that delivers an intoxicating exhaust note and relentless power. This formidable V8 powerplant is paired with the lightning-fast 7-speed M double clutch transmission, offering seamless gear changes and instantaneous throttle response whether you are carving canyon roads or navigating your daily commute. Enhancing both its athletic stance and dynamic road-holding capability are the striking 19" forged and polished double spoke alloy wheels (style 220m), which perfectly connect this performance machine to the pavement. Inside the cabin, this vehicle is designed to elevate your driving experience with a selection of top-tier factory upgrades. The integrated Technology Package and Premium Package provide a sophisticated, driver-oriented cockpit, while the Enhanced Premium Sound system delivers crystal-clear audio quality that easily cuts through the wind noise with the top down. Combining timeless styling, peak mechanical engineering, and a highly desirable option list, this Alpine White 2009 BMW M3 convertible represents a premier opportunity for enthusiasts seeking a modern classic that compromises on neither comfort nor performance.
