Dealer notes

Combining modern styling with midsize versatility, this 2021 Ford Ranger XLT 2WD SuperCrew 5' Box is an ideal choice for drivers seeking a capable and reliable pickup. Dressed in a striking Carbonized Gray Metallic exterior, this Ranger delivers a bold, athletic stance on the road while providing the generous passenger space of a full four-door SuperCrew layout. Whether you need a dependable vehicle for the daily commute or a flexible truck for weekend projects, this 2021 Ford Ranger offers the perfect balance of head-turning design and practical everyday functionality. Under the hood, the energetic 2.3L 4-cylinder engine provides responsive performance and efficient cruising, making the 2WD drivetrain well-suited for city streets and open highways alike. The 5' bed is engineered for maximum utility and comes equipped with a Tough Bed spray-in bedliner to guard against scrapes, dents, and wear when hauling cargo. Complementing its functional exterior profile, a set of 5" rectangular black running boards offers easy step-in access to the cabin while adding a refined accent to the truck's profile. Inside, the cabin features a comfortable Ebony interior designed for convenience on every journey. Upgraded with Equipment Group 301A Mid, this midsize truck delivers enhanced cabin amenities, including a handy 110V AC power outlet to keep your tools or electronics charged on the move. Reversing and tight parking maneuvers are made easier with the integrated reverse sensing system, adding extra confidence behind the wheel.
