Powered by Toyota's proven 5.7L i-Force V8 engine with automatic transmission and rear-wheel drive, this Tundra offers strong power, excellent long-term dependability, and true full-size truck capability. SR5 trim gives it the comfort and practicality truck buyers want, while the Double Cab setup provides extra passenger space without losing useful bed space. Toyota's 2021 Tundra lineup included the 5.7L V8, available RWD, Tow Package, and Toyota Safety Sense P features. Interior and exterior are both in good condition and the truck has clearly been cared for. Reliable low-mileage V8 Toyota truck that's perfect for work, towing, hauling, family use, commuting, or everyday driving.
