Dealer notes

Dominate both the highway and the trail with this commanding 2020 GMC Sierra 2500HD 4WD Crew Cab 159" AT4. Draped in a sleek Onyx Black exterior, this heavy-duty pickup demands attention with its rugged, elevated stance and athletic styling. Step inside the spacious Crew Cab to find a premium cabin featuring a refined Jet Black interior accented by distinctive Kalahari highlights, offering an upscale yet durable environment designed for those who refuse to compromise on style or comfort. Whether you are navigating demanding jobsites or embarking on weekend adventures, this truck delivers a powerful first impression. At the heart of this formidable machine is the legendary Duramax 6.6L Turbo-Diesel V8 engine (B20-diesel compatible), providing the massive horsepower and immense torque required for serious towing and heavy payload demands. Paired with a robust Four Wheel Drive system, this 2020 GMC Sierra 2500HD is engineered to conquer challenging terrain and adverse weather conditions with ease. From pulling heavy trailers and hauling equipment to navigating steep inclines, the advanced powertrain ensures confident, controlled, and efficient capability whenever you get behind the wheel. This highly equipped AT4 model comes loaded with premium upgrades, including the comprehensive AT4 Premium Package and the convenient AT4 Preferred Package, which elevate cabin comfort and utility. Driver awareness and connectivity are prioritized through the integrated Technology Package, while the exterior aesthetic is further enhanced by striking 20" 6-spoke bright machined aluminum wheels. Combining heavy-duty performance with cutting-edge innovations and refined cabin details, this 2020 GMC Sierra 2500HD AT4 is the ultimate choice for buyers seeking a versatile, high-end workhorse that is ready for any challenge.
