Dealer notes

The 2002 Lexus SC430 is a luxury hardtop convertible renowned for its avant-garde styling, bulletproof reliability, and serene grand-touring performance. Often called a "jewel box" by its designers, it features a power-retractable aluminum hardtop that transforms the car from a sleek coupe into an open-air cruiser in under 25 seconds. Under the hood, it is powered by a remarkably smooth 4.3-liter V8 engine producing 300 horsepower, paired with a plush leather and real wood-trimmed interior. While it prioritizes effortless, quiet highway cruising over aggressive sports-car handling, the 2002 SC430 remains a unique, collectible modern classic that epitomizes early-2000s Japanese luxury.
