Dealer notes

Finding an affordable, practical vehicle with exceptionally low mileage has become increasingly difficult, making this 2019 Ford Fiesta a truly remarkable opportunity. With only 1,400 original miles, it has been driven less than many vehicles accumulate in their first few months and offers a rare chance to purchase a lightly used car that still presents remarkably close to new. The Fiesta is an excellent choice for commuters, first-time drivers, students, or anyone seeking economical and dependable transportation. Its compact dimensions make it easy to maneuver and park, while its comfortable cabin, responsive handling, and impressive fuel efficiency make everyday driving enjoyable and affordable. It would also make an ideal second vehicle or city runabout. This exceptional example has received a fresh service and is ready for its next owner. Given its extraordinarily low mileage, manageable ownership costs, and versatile hatchback/sedan design, it represents tremendous value compared with the price of a new vehicle. Low-mileage examples like this are becoming increasingly difficult to find—especially with only 1,400 original miles. If you have been searching for an economical, easy-to-own vehicle that has seen almost no use, this 2019 Ford Fiesta deserves your immediate attention.
