Dealer notes

Looking for a sedan with a roomy interior that can hold up to six passengers? Looking for something with a V6 and good gas mileage? And, perhaps most importantly, looking for a car you can depend on? Our 2006 Ford Taurus makes the grade in every regard, sporting a 3.0L V6 that kicks out 153hp. Paired with a 4-Speed automatic, this Front Wheel Drive scores 27mpg highway. Our SE trim comes well equipped with all the creature comforts you would expect, appearance features that stand out from the crowd, plus plentiful safety equipment. Also, keep in mind that it earns top ratings for front impact, thanks to dual front airbags. Ford has come up with a car that has proved to be a reliable sedan with the comfort, features, and passenger room that you are looking for. And, the price is right. This is a great value in a vehicle that offers you a smooth ride and the quality that Ford has always delivered over the years. Safety and comfort are what you will find with this beautiful sedan.
