Dealer notes

Prepare to dominate both the highway and the unbeaten path in this jaw-dropping 2013 Ford F-150 4WD SuperCrew 145" SVT Raptor. Coated in the head-turning Blue Flame Metallic exterior paint, this high-performance pickup represents the pinnacle of aggressive styling and factory-built off-road capability. Built for enthusiasts who demand presence and power, this SuperCrew SVT Raptor combines the daily utility of America's favorite truck with the DNA of a desert racing champion, making it a highly coveted find for truck buyers seeking the ultimate adventure vehicle. Under the hood lies the heart of a beast: a massive 6.2L 8-cylinder engine that delivers relentless horsepower and torque. Paired with a robust Four Wheel Drive (4WD) drivetrain, this 2013 Ford F-150 SVT Raptor is engineered to conquer grueling terrain, deep sand, and rocky trails with absolute confidence. The specialized SVT-tuned suspension works in perfect harmony with the high-output V8 powertrain, ensuring that whether you are crawling over obstacles or cruising at highway speeds, you experience an unmatched blend of rugged utility and controlled performance. Inside, the refined Black interior offers premium comfort to match its tough exterior, enhanced by the highly desirable Luxury Equipment Group and the convenient Plus Pkg. This exceptional cabin is further elevated by a power moonroof that lets the outside in, while the front and rear view camera system ensures optimal visibility when maneuvering in tight spots or navigating challenging trails. Riding on premium 17" forged aluminum bead-lock capable wheels, this 2013 Ford F-150 SVT Raptor stands as a complete package of luxury, technology, and pure off-road dominance that is ready for its next owner.
