Dealer notes

1974 Steyr Puch Pinzgauer Custom Unimog Style Vehicle. This vehicle is equipped with an air cooled in-line four-cylinder gas engine, five speed manual transmission, hi low on the fly four-wheel-drive, on the fly front and rear differential lockers, front and rear portal drop axle system, just like a unimog an independent front and rear suspension with coil over type shocks. These units were produced between 1971 up until 2000 with two different models of 710 and 712. These were used as military vehicles in most cases we do not know the originality of this particular one as it has been very customized. Set up as a off-road overland vehicle. This one has a tent system on the roof rack, custom seats that appear to have been removed from a Polaris, BF Goodrich tires in excellent shape, rear seating bench style or could have a mattress to turn into a bed area, top side mounted shower system. Lots of custom features on this unit we do not know if it was originally a hard top soft top etc.. We are very vague in our knowledge of this vehicle please ask any questions ahead of time and we will do our best to answer them but this is not a vehicle that we are an expert on. We can say that it is very extremely rare and priced extremely extremely well compared to its other models of humvee or unimog similar vehicles.
