Reviews: * If you don't have a lot of money to spend but want to say you drive a new Jeep, the Patriot could be your entry to the brand. Drivers requiring enhanced traction for foul weather or Jeep's Trail-Rated off-road ability can choose between two 4-wheel-drive (4WD) systems for the Patriot. Source: KBB.com * Comfortable front seats; optional flip-down tailgate speakers; above-average off-road capability with Freedom Drive II; attractively priced. Source: Edmunds * The 2015 Patriot has a body style that harkens back to the Cherokee of the past but with a refreshingly modern twist. Geometric angles, bold fender flares, and body colored grille freshen up the look while maintaining the familiar Jeep look that people love. Available in three models: Sport, Latitude and Limited. The Sport and Latitude come standard with a 2.0-Liter, 4-Cylinder 158hp engine. The Limited comes standard with a
