Dealer notes

1967 Pontiac Firebird Convertible - A True American Classic A beautifully preserved 1967 Pontiac Firebird Convertible, the very first year this iconic model hit the road. This car turns heads everywhere it goes with its timeless styling, smooth ride, and unmistakable muscle-car presence. * Convertible top is BRAND NEW * Strong-running V8 with that classic Pontiac sound * Automatic transmission for easy cruising * Clean interior with vintage character intact * Straight body and solid frame * Well-maintained and garage kept Driving Experience The car runs and drives exactly the way a '67 Firebird should-smooth, powerful, and full of classic muscle attitude. Whether you're cruising on weekends or adding to a collection, this Firebird delivers the perfect blend of nostalgia and performance. Collector Appeal 1967 is the first production year for the Firebird, making it one of the most desirable models for collectors and enthusiasts. Convertible versions are especially sought after and continue to climb in value. Why This Firebird Stands Out * Beautiful condition inside and out * Reliable, road-ready, and mechanically sound * A true classic that's only getting harder to find * Perfect for shows, cruising, or investment
