Dealer notes

2023 Audi e-tron Premium quattro SUV – 16,165 Miles Finished in Glacier White Metallic over Pearl Beige leather seating surfaces with genuine wood and Piano Black cabin accents, this e-tron combines electric power, all-wheel drive and the everyday versatility of a luxury SUV. Power is delivered through an automatic transmission to all four wheels. Height-adjustable adaptive suspension with driver-selectable ride control, front and rear automatic leveling, front and rear anti-roll bars and speed-sensitive electric power steering contribute to its comfort-focused driving setup. Regenerative four-wheel disc brakes recover energy during deceleration, while a 9.6 kW onboard charger supports plug-in charging. Originally priced at $72,590 including shipping, this e-tron includes $595 Glacier White Metallic paint. Pearl Beige leather seating surfaces are listed as a no-cost factory selection. The cabin features heated front seats, a heated leather steering wheel, a 10-speaker audio system, an auto-dimming rearview mirror, HomeLink, a power-adjustable steering column and 40/20/40 split-folding rear seats. Additional equipment includes a panoramic glass sunroof, heated power-folding exterior mirrors, LED lighting, power liftgate access, Audi pre sense basic and front, Audi pre sense rear, Audi side assist, front and rear parking sensors and a tire-pressure monitoring system.
