Dealer notes

Step into the future of luxury electric driving with this stunning 2023 Mercedes-Benz EQE 350+ SUV. Combining sophisticated German engineering with cutting-edge electric vehicle technology, this premium midsize SUV makes an instant impression on the road. Draped in the exquisite, optional MANUFAKTUR Diamond White Metallic exterior paint, it radiates modern elegance and a clean, commanding presence. Inside, the cabin welcomes you with a beautifully curated Neva Grey and Sable Brown interior, establishing a serene, ultra-premium sanctuary that perfectly redefines what a luxury electric vehicle should be. Underneath its aerodynamically optimized silhouette, the 2023 Mercedes-Benz EQE 350+ SUV delivers a seamless, whisper-quiet electric driving experience that sacrifices nothing in terms of dynamics. Driven by an advanced zero-emission electric powertrain, it offers immediate torque for effortless highway merging and urban navigating. This particular model is equipped with the highly advanced 10-degree rear axle steering system, which dramatically reduces the turning radius for agile, effortless maneuvering in tight city spaces while enhancing stability during high-speed lane changes. Rolling on stylish 20" x 8.5J 5-spoke wheels, this electric SUV offers a perfectly planted, comfortable ride designed for both daily commutes and weekend escapes. The luxury experience is elevated to new heights with the premium Exclusive Trim Package, which enhances cabin comfort and convenience to meet the exacting standards of the Mercedes-Benz brand. Visibility is optimized by the state-of-the-art Digital Light Package, projecting precision illumination to guide your path safely through any night-driving conditions. Surrounded by the striking color contrast of the Neva Grey and Sable Brown cabin materials, passengers are treated to a truly first-class environment. Captivating, efficient, and forward-thinking, this 2023 Mercedes-Benz EQE 350+ SUV represents the pinnacle of modern electric luxury and is ready to elevate your garage today.
