Finished in Black Raven over a Jet Black interior with Jet Black accents, this CT4 has an aggressive monochromatic appearance complemented perfectly by the 19-inch LPO Gloss Black painted alloy wheels. This is not a basic CT4 Sport. Why This CT4 Sport Stands Out The combination of extremely low mileage and extensive factory equipment is what separates this CT4 from more basic examples. The Sport trim provides the aggressive styling buyers want, while AWD makes it far more practical for year-round driving. Inside, Cadillac's premium technology, climate, navigation, and Bose equipment give the car the luxury experience expected from the brand. With its Black Raven exterior, Jet Black cabin, and 19-inch Gloss Black wheels, the entire vehicle has a clean and sporty blacked-out appearance. This combination makes the CT4 an excellent year-round luxury sport sedan rather than a vehicle that only shines in ideal weather.

Sport Appearance The Sport trim gives this CT4 a noticeably more aggressive presence than the standard luxury-oriented configurations. The Black Raven paint and 19-inch Gloss Black wheels work especially well together, creating a factory-custom appearance without relying on excessive aftermarket modifications.
