Dealer notes

The 2024 Ford F-150 Raptor comes in a striking Carbonized Gray exterior that perfectly complements its powerhouse performance and rugged design. Boasting a 3.5L V6 EcoBoost high-output engine, this truck is engineered for those who crave both raw power and high efficiency. Inside, the cabin offers a luxurious Black interior with ample space, providing comfort and style in its SuperCrew configuration. The Equipment Group 801A Standard package delivers cutting-edge technology features that keep you connected and entertained on every journey. Functionality meets innovation with features like a twin panel moonroof, which invites natural light into the spacious cabin for an open, airy feel. For added convenience and protection, the hard folding tonneau pickup box cover and tough bed spray-in bedliner enhance the truck's practical utility while safeguarding your cargo. With a Four Wheel Drive drivetrain, this Raptor is designed to tackle any terrain, ensuring you have the confidence to take on the most challenging off-road adventures. The 5.5' Box provides ample cargo space without compromising the agility and performance inherent to the Raptor legacy.
