Dealer notes

If you are searching for a versatile, spacious full-size SUV built to handle heavy-duty family adventures and daily hauling alike, this 2007 Ford Expedition EL 4WD XLT is an ideal choice. Finished in a striking Dark Blue Pearl Metallic exterior, this extended-length (EL) model offers a commanding road presence alongside expanded cabin and cargo capacity. As a four-wheel-drive XLT trim, it combines rugged utility with classic styling, making it a standout option for drivers needing uncompromising space and legendary dependability. Under the hood, this Expedition EL is powered by a robust 5.4L SOHC SEFI 24-valve V8 engine that delivers impressive horsepower and low-end torque for confident passing and heavy hauling. Paired with a capable Four Wheel Drive system, this full-size SUV provides maximum traction and stability across tough terrain, mud, snow, and challenging road conditions. The extended EL wheelbase provides substantially more cargo room behind the rear seating area compared to standard models, ensuring exceptional utility for gear, luggage, or tools without sacrificing passenger room. Designed for long-haul comfort and everyday practicality, the cabin of the 2007 Ford Expedition EL 4WD XLT features a thoughtful layout with generous legroom and a commanding view of the road ahead. Equipped with functional interior controls, durable upholstery, and built-in Ford safety engineering, this SUV offers a secure and smooth ride for every passenger. Do not miss the chance to own a versatile, 5.4L V8-powered 2007 Ford Expedition EL that is ready to elevate your upcoming trips and tackle your daily driving demands with ease.
