Dealer notes

If you are searching for a highly capable and versatile commercial vehicle, this 2016 Ford Transit Cargo Van T-250 offers the ideal combination of space, efficiency, and proven dependability. Dressed in a clean Oxford White finish, this low-roof cargo van features a 130-inch wheelbase and a substantial 9,000 lbs. GVWR rating, making it tailored to meet the rigorous demands of daily fleet operations, trade work, or mobile services. Its intelligent layout and swing-out right-hand side cargo door provide a practical solution for professionals who need fast, efficient access to their tools and inventory on every job site. Under the hood, the Transit T-250 is powered by a reliable 3.7L 6-cylinder engine paired with a 3.73 axle ratio, delivering steady power and solid capability for hauling heavy loads. The low-roof design provides excellent garage and urban accessibility without sacrificing valuable internal cargo volume. For enhanced safety and convenience on the road, this model includes fixed rear-door and fixed passenger-side cargo-door glass, providing crucial rearward visibility while maneuvering in tight spots or backing up to loading zones. Inside, the functional Pewter cabin is designed around driver comfort and utility, featuring dual bucket seats with driver-side manual lumbar support to help reduce fatigue during long shifts. Highway driving and fleet management are made easier with integrated cruise control featuring a message center, keeping vital driving data right at your fingertips. Enhanced by the factory Exterior Upgrade Package for a polished, professional look, this 2016 Ford Transit Cargo Van T-250 is a smart, work-ready investment designed to drive your business forward.
