Dealer notes

Step into luxury and command the road with this stunning 2021 Ford Expedition Max Limited. Finished in a sophisticated Agate Black exterior, this full-size SUV exudes a bold, commanding presence that is perfectly complemented by its refined Medium Stone interior. Designed for those who refuse to compromise on space or style, the "Max" extended wheelbase offers generous cabin room, making it the ultimate premium family cruiser. Whether you are navigating daily commutes or embarking on a long-distance road trip, this Limited trim delivers an upscale driving experience that blends sophisticated design with everyday versatility. Under the hood, the 2021 Ford Expedition Max Limited 4x2 is powered by the formidable 3.5L EcoBoost V6 engine. This advanced twin-turbocharged 6-cylinder powerplant delivers robust horsepower and impressive low-end torque, ensuring effortless acceleration and confident towing capability. Paired with a smooth-shifting automatic transmission and a rear-wheel-drive (4x2) configuration, this powertrain optimizes on-road efficiency and highway driving dynamics. The extended Max chassis not only enhances stability on the highway but also significantly increases cargo volume behind the third row, making it an incredibly capable utility vehicle for hauling gear and luggage. Inside the cabin, the Equipment Group 300A standard package provides a host of premium conveniences and high-end materials that elevate every journey. Passengers in both the front and rear rows can enjoy an open, airy atmosphere courtesy of the spectacular panoramic vista roof, which floods the spacious cabin with natural light. Combining upscale comfort, impressive V6 capability, and a striking Agate Black aesthetic, this 2021 Ford Expedition Max Limited stands out as a premier choice for discerning buyers seeking a top-tier SUV.
