Dealer notes

The 2024 Hyundai Sonata SEL 2.5L FWD is a striking mid-size sedan that blends sophistication with dynamic performance. Dressed elegantly in Portofino Gray, this vehicle captures attention with its sleek silhouette and bold design elements. Under the hood lies a robust 2.5L 4-cylinder engine that provides a perfect balance of power and efficiency, making every drive an enjoyable experience. The front-wheel-drive setup ensures a smooth and responsive ride, whether navigating city streets or cruising on the highway. Inside, the Sonata SEL offers a stylish black interior that prioritizes comfort and functionality. The inclusion of a convenience package elevates the driving experience with added features that enhance both comfort and tech connectivity. Features like heated front seats and a touch-screen infotainment system create an inviting environment for both driver and passengers. Complementing the soft-touch materials and ergonomic design are all-season fitted liners and carpeted floor mats, which safeguard the interior against the elements. For added practicality, a trunk cargo net and cargo hook provide versatile solutions for organizing and securing items in the spacious trunk. This thoughtful design ensures that groceries and personal belongings are kept intact during transit. Furthermore, the Sonata's safety features and driver assistance technologies offer peace of mind on every journey. With the 2024 Hyundai Sonata SEL 2.5L FWD, drivers will find a harmonious blend of style, comfort, and innovation, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a refined yet energetic driving experience.
