Dealer notes

Rugged capability meets iconic styling in the 2024 Toyota 4Runner TRD Off Road Premium 4WD. Finished in a striking Ice Cap exterior color, this proven body-on-frame SUV is engineered for modern adventurers who demand uncompromising durability on and off the pavement. As one of the most trusted utility vehicles on the market, the TRD Off Road Premium trim strikes the ideal balance between raw off-road heritage and daily versatility, making it a top choice for buyers seeking both reliability and bold design. Under the hood, this midsize SUV is powered by a dependable 4.0L 6-cylinder engine paired with an advanced Four Wheel Drive system, providing the necessary torque and traction to tackle difficult trails, weather, and rough roads. Equipped with rugged Trail running boards for easier cabin access and factory Paint protection film to shield the crisp exterior finish from trail debris, this 4Runner is ready for serious outdoor utility without sacrificing long-term durability. Inside, the cabin features an athletic Black/Graphite interior environment built to handle gear, pets, and muddy boots with ease. The included Moonroof package lets in fresh air and panoramic sunlight, while the all-weather floor liner and cargo tray provide essential protection against the elements. Grounded by a distinctive set of 17" cast pro matte black SEMA wheels, the 2024 Toyota 4Runner TRD Off Road Premium 4WD delivers an unforgettable driving experience built to stand the test of time.
