Dealer notes

1974 Ford Bronco Custom Trailer. This trailer is titled as a 1974 homemade trailer. We have matching title to the VIN and was made from the rear of a actual Ford bronco. The tailgate operates perfectly as well as a nice matched camper shell. The only thing at all to do this unit would be color match it to your classic bronco and spray in a spray in bedliner. The floor is solid as a rock as you can see from the photos the assembly in the build of this seems to be very well done. The axle is centered nicely in the fender well with an alloy wheel. This would be the ultimate add on to a collection or very very practical for towing behind any classic vehicle for camping etc.. This has not been pulled or towed in many years but everything appears to be operational and usable as you see and very solid.
