Dealer notes

Combining commanding presence with exceptional comfort, this 2022 Range Rover Sport Autobiography presents beautifully in Santorini Black over a striking tan-and-black interior. The rich contrast between its dark exterior and warm cabin gives this flagship-trim SUV a particularly elegant appearance, offering a distinctive alternative to more commonly seen interior combinations. This Carfax-certified, one-owner example has remained in Southern California since new and has traveled only approximately 9,500 miles. Its service history includes multiple visits to Jaguar Land Rover retailer Desert European, reflecting the attention it has received throughout its ownership. Kept indoors its entire life, this Range Rover has clearly been exceptionally well cared for, and its remarkably preserved condition complements its low mileage. The Autobiography trim brings an elevated level of craftsmanship and refinement to the Range Rover Sport's athletic proportions. Beautiful interior materials, an inviting cabin and a commanding driving position create an experience equally suited to everyday travel or a weekend escape. Its blend of responsive performance, composed road manners and signature Range Rover capability gives it appeal well beyond its appearance. With its desirable Santorini Black finish, distinctive tan-and-black interior, Southern California provenance and exceptionally low mileage, this is a compelling opportunity to acquire a beautifully maintained Range Rover Sport Autobiography.
