Dealer notes

The 2021 Ford Transit Cargo Van T-250 148" Med Rf 9070 GVWR RWD stands as a premier choice for professionals looking to maximize business efficiency and daily utility. Finished in a classic Oxford White exterior, this full-size commercial van provides a clean, professional appearance ideal for business branding. Designed with a medium roof height and a 148-inch wheelbase, this versatile workhorse strikes the perfect balance between expanded vertical cargo capacity and agile handling on busy job sites or city routes. Under the hood, this powerful T-250 is driven by a responsive 3.5L EcoBoost V6 engine, delivering impressive power and torque to haul heavy equipment and cargo with confidence. Configured with a rear-wheel-drive (RWD) powertrain and a 9,070 lb Gross Vehicle Weight Rating (GVWR), this van is built to manage heavy loads while maintaining smooth, predictable driving dynamics. The medium roof configuration significantly enhances working comfort, allowing easier access to tool systems and cargo inside the rear compartment. Inside, the functional cabin is trimmed in Dark Palazzo Gray, creating a durable and focused environment built to withstand the rigors of commercial use. Ergonomically designed driver controls and intelligent cabin storage help keep your mobile workplace organized throughout the workday. Exceptional capability, proven engine performance, and adaptable cargo space make this 2021 Ford Transit Cargo Van an outstanding investment for any fleet or trade professional looking to get the job done right.
